

ANSWERS

First

The princess loses her golden ball in the pond.

Next

A frog offers to get the golden ball out of the water if the princess will take him home with her. She agrees.

The Frog Prince

Then

The frog returns the ball to the princess, but she runs off and leaves the frog. He shows up at the castle. The king and queen make the princess keep her promise. The frog eats from her plate and sleeps in her bed for three days and nights.

At the End

The frog turns into a prince. The frog explains that a spell had been put on him that could only be broken if a princess agreed to eat and sleep with him. The prince and princess live happily ever after.

