Compare and Contrast

When you compare things, you look for things that are the same. When you contrast things, you look for things that are different. When comparing and contrasting in the same piece of writing, transitional words signal to the reader whether something is being compared or contrasted.

DIRECTIONS: Think about two things you enjoy doing. Using an alternating pattern, write a paragraph that both compares and contrasts them.

© ReadingDuck.com