

Compare and Contrast

To compare things means to look for things that are the same. To contrast things, you look for things that are different. When comparing and contrasting in the same piece of writing, transition words signal comparison or contrast to the reader.

DIRECTIONS: Using an alternating pattern, write a compare and contrast paragraph about your favorite and least favorite holidays. First complete the Venn Diagram below. Then write from your notes.

