Climbing Club Fun

Lily joined the climbing club, excited for the new hobby. She put on her climbing shoes and grabbed her backpack.

The club's first stop was at the big rock next to the lamb pen. Lily noticed the subtle color changes in the rocks as she climbed. Her friend, Ben, was already at the top, nibbling on an apple. They explored the crumbled ruins nearby and found a small tomb hidden behind the bushes.

After a brief rest, they climbed higher and discovered a colorful ribbon stuck in the branches of a tree. Ben found an old comb near a bench, which he decided to keep.

As the sun began to set, they admired the calm, amber glow of the sky. Their adventure was full of fun and new discoveries.
