

Name _____

Campfire Mysteries

Kelly knew the woods were full of secrets. She knelt by the campfire, listening to the crackling flames. Her brother, Kyle, had knocked on her tent earlier, eager to share ghost stories. They packed snacks and sat close, ready for a night of spooky tales.

As the fire dimmed, they heard a knock on a nearby tree. Kyle quickly shushed Kelly, thinking it might be a wild animal. Instead, it was their friend Nick, who had sneaked up to join them. Nick knew the best ghost stories and began with a chilling tale.

In the middle of the story, Kelly's knees started to shake with fright. Kyle handed her a blanket, knowing she was scared but also thrilled. They all laughed when they realized how jumpy they had become. By the end of the night, they agreed it was the most fun campfire they had ever had.