

Name _____

The Pie Baking Contest

In the bustling town of Sweetville, there was a yearly tradition that brought everyone together—the Great Pie Baking Contest! This year, the contestants were tasked with baking the most delicious pies using secret family recipes. Katie the Koala, known for her famous apple pie, whipped up a batch of golden-brown crusts filled with juicy apples and cinnamon. Meanwhile, Max the Monkey decided to get creative and made a banana cream pie with a crunchy chocolate crust. As the judges tasted each pie, they marveled at the sweet aroma filling the air and the mouthwatering flavors bursting in their mouths.

After much deliberation, the judges finally announced the winner of the contest—it was a tie between Katie's apple pie and Max's banana cream pie! The townsfolk cheered and clapped as Katie and Max shared the trophy, proud of their delicious creations. And as the sun set on Sweetville, everyone enjoyed slices of pie together, savoring the moment and looking forward to next year's contest.