Gooley Monster's Picnic

Join us for a gooey monster's picnic! In a magical forest deep, deep, deep in the land of imagination, there's a place where friendly gooey monsters gather to celebrate. Today is a special day because it's Gooley Gus's birthday!

Gooley Gus has big, round eyes that sparkle like jewels and a smile that stretches from ear to ear. As the other monsters arrive, they bring trays of yummy treats—ooey-gooey cookies, chewy marshmallows, and fruity juice boxes. But oh no! The wind blows away the picnic blanket, scattering the goodies everywhere. What will the monsters do?

Not to worry, the monsters work together to gather the treats. They use their sticky, gooey fingers to pick up the cookies, their stretchy arms to collect the marshmallows, and their bouncy tails to catch the juice boxes. With giggles and laughter, they soon have everything back in place.

Gooley Gus blows out the candles on his birthday cake—a towering masterpiece made of ooey-gooey chocolate. As they feast and dance under the twinkling stars, the monsters know that friendship and fun make every picnic perfect!
