

Name _____

Joan of Arc: The Brave Girl Who Led Armies

Short Answer Key

1. Joan of Arc's mission was to help the French fight against the English because she believed it was her duty from a vision sent by God.
2. Joan of Arc faced challenges in convincing others to take her seriously and danger on the battlefield, including being wounded.
3. Joan of Arc helped the French by leading them to victory in important battles during the Hundred Years' War.
4. Joan of Arc's life is significant because she is a symbol of courage and determination, showing that even a young girl can make a big difference.
5. Joan of Arc was declared a saint by the Catholic Church in 1920.

