

Name _____

Chilling Shadows

Short Answer Key

1. The flickering firelight casts strange shadows, making the room feel eerie and unpredictable.
2. The storm makes the setting feel dangerous and unpredictable, matching the story's growing suspense.
3. The house feels empty, silent, and cold after Herbert's death, reflecting the family's sorrow.
4. The heavy knocking suggests that the wish might have worked in a terrible way, creating fear.
5. At the start, the house feels warm and cozy, but by the end, it feels dark, eerie, and full of dread.

