

Name _____

Clashing Worlds

Short Answer Key

1. The Greasers see the Socs as spoiled and heartless, while the Socs see the Greasers as criminals and troublemakers.
2. Cherry tells Ponyboy that the Socs also have struggles, even though they don't show their emotions.
3. The Greasers and Socs are from different social classes and don't understand each other, which leads to fights.
4. After Johnny kills a Soc, Ponyboy realizes how serious the rivalry is and starts to question whether it's worth the violence.
5. Ponyboy learns that people are more than just their social group and that everyone has struggles.

