

Third Person Limited POV

How does the author use each third person limited POV character development technique?

Technique	How it is executed in text
Physical Description: The POV character can describe the character's physical appearance; Other characters can remark upon the character's physical appearance
Character actions and words: The character says and does things in the story.
What other characters say: The character hears or hears about what others say; The POV character can reveal what others say about the character
Narrator Commentary: The POV character can comment directly about him or herself and other characters.. The first person POV narrator can be unreliable.
