Diwali's Magical Lamp

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Deepak's wishes made his Diwali celebration extraordinary. He had an endless supply of sweets, beautiful clothes to wear, and a breathtaking fireworks display that lit up the entire village.
2. Deepak learned that the true magic of Diwali comes from sharing happiness with loved ones rather than just making wishes for himself.
3. Deepak decided not to use his last wish to keep the lamp forever because he realized that there would be other special moments in the future when he could use it, and he wanted to save it for those occasions.
4. When Diya disappeared back into the lamp, Deepak likely felt a mix of emotions, including gratitude for the magical moments she had helped create and a sense of contentment knowing that he could always use the lamp again in the future.
