

Name _____

The Emotion-Flourishing Forest

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The connection between the emotions of the creatures and the colors of the leaves in the Emotion-Flourishing Forest is that the emotions of the creatures influence the colors of the leaves. This connection creates harmony in the forest as the emotions and the leaves are intertwined, reflecting the creatures' feelings in the natural world.
2. Lucy's actions reflected bravery and determination as she led the forest animals to safety during the fire. She risked her safety to help them and showed determination by not giving up until the fire was extinguished. Examples include leading the animals and helping put out the flames.
3. Emotions that might turn the leaves of the Emotion-Flourishing Forest purple could include feelings of kindness, compassion, and empathy. These emotions could create a soothing and harmonious atmosphere in the forest.
4. Lucy felt a special connection to the Emotion-Flourishing Forest because she had experienced the magic of emotions and their impact on the world around her. The forest taught her that emotions were powerful and that acts of kindness and courage could bring joy and contentment to both the creatures and the environment.

