

Name _____

The Costume Conjuror

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Mr. Wilson realized that the magic was unpredictable and that true magic came from creativity, not from transformations. He also wanted to keep the magic a secret.
2. Answers may vary, but some possibilities include that more people might have been transformed into characters, causing chaos, or that Mr. Wilson could have faced consequences for using the magic.
3. Lucy embraced her role as a pirate and started looking for treasure, while Timmy enjoyed pretending to float in space as an astronaut.
4. Mr. Wilson meant that the real magic of costumes was in the creativity and effort put into making them unique and special, rather than in magical transformations.

