

Name _____

Joan of Arc: The Brave Girl Who Led Armies

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Joan of Arc convinced the French king by demonstrating her bravery and determination in battle and by inspiring others with her strong faith and conviction.
2. Joan of Arc's leadership played a crucial role in turning the tide of the Hundred Years' War in favor of the French, leading to important victories.
3. Joan of Arc is considered a symbol of courage and determination because she showed unwavering belief in her mission and faced incredible challenges with bravery.
4. Joan of Arc's strong faith guided her actions and gave her the strength to persevere in the face of adversity. She believed she was guided by God in her mission to help the French.

