Sorting Choices

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary. Some may argue that the Sorting Hat should decide based on personality, while others may say students should have a choice to ensure they fit well.
2. Students may suggest that Harry's friendships and experiences would have been different, and he might have been influenced by Slytherin values.
3. Students should give a personal example of a choice they made that affected their life.
4. Responses will vary—some may argue that people shape their own future through choices, while others may believe destiny plays a role.
