Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. One time, I forgot my umbrella at home, which led to me getting wet, which made me cold, and then I got sick! This is similar to Mouse's story because one event led to another.
2. Mouse keeps asking for more things because he is curious and easily excited. He might not realize how much extra work he is creating for the boy!
3. If Mouse went back to school, he might ask to join a sports team, which could lead to him needing a uniform, which could remind him of something else he wants.
4. Understanding cause and effect helps us make good choices. If we know that not studying can lead to bad grades, we can choose to study instead!
