

Name _____

Fate's Choice

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Some may say Caesar's choices led to his death because he ignored warnings, while others may argue that fate had already decided his end.
2. Some may agree with Cassius and believe people control their own lives, while others may believe fate plays a role.
3. Answers will vary, but students should explain why they would or wouldn't believe a warning about their future.
4. Answers will vary, but students should use examples from the story to support their view on whether Shakespeare believed in fate or free will.

