(Responses may vary, but here are sample answers.)

1. If Macbeth had never met the witches, he might not have thought about being king so soon. However, his ambition may have led him down a similar path anyway.
2. Macbeth is afraid of losing power, which causes him to make rash and violent choices.
3. While the witches influenced Macbeth, he made his own decisions, so he is responsible for what happened.
4. I would tell Macbeth to be patient and not rush into decisions based on fear and greed.
