

Brackets

Write two sentences about each picture. The first sentence should name what you are describing from the picture. In the second sentence, reference the item named in the first sentence and clarify the reference using brackets. Follow the example.

First sentence: The road was long and winding.

Second sentence: It [the road] was long and winding.

1.

2.

