

ANSWERS

1. A conditional sentence expresses that one thing is dependent on something else.
2. A Mixed Conditional Type sentence describes an unreal past condition and its probable result in the present.
- 3.

Type	Verb Tense of the "if" Clause	Verb Tense of the Main Clause
Mixed	Past perfect or simple past	Present conditional

4. Sentences will vary. Sample correct answers:

you would not have fallen

If you read

you would not have seen them.

If we were friends