The Gnome Picnic

On a sunny morning, gnomes gathered for a picnic. They spread out blankets on the grass near a gnarly tree.

One gnome brought sandwiches with a special recipe.

Another gnome, wearing a knitted hat, played the harmonica. Everyone enjoyed the delicious knishes and fresh lemonade. They sat in a ring, sharing stories and laughing.

Suddenly, a gnome found a hidden tunnel under a rock.

They all decided to explore it, discovering a secret garden.

The gnomes ended the day by planting flowers to remember their adventure.
