Midnight Flight

On a calm night, Sara planned a midnight flight in her hot air balloon. The stars were bright, and the moon shone high.

Sara's excitement reached its height as she prepared to lift off. The balloon rose smoothly into the night sky. From her high vantage point, Sara could see the city's twinkling lights. The sight of the world below was a breathtaking delight.

Suddenly, she noticed a nearby plane, its lights flashing bright. Sara waved, her spirits high as the plane flew by.

The calm night made the flight feel just right. Sara's adventure was a magical highlight of her summer.
