Underwater Hunt

Diving deep in the ocean, Mia swung her flashlight around, searching for the hidden treasure.

She flung herself over a coral reef, spotting a shiny chest.

As she sprung closer, a school of fish sprung out from behind the rocks. The chest's lock clung as Mia tried to open it.

Nearby, her friend Jake sung a song to keep calm while waiting. Suddenly, a large eel sprung towards them, and Mia's heart sprung with fear. Jake quickly sprung into action, using a stick to shoo the eel away.

With a strong tug, Mia finally sprung the chest open, revealing gold coins and jewels. They hung their arms around each other, celebrating their find.
