The Awesome Paw Parade

In a small town, there was an awesome parade every spring called the Paw Parade.

All the pets in town dressed up in costumes and marched down the street. This year, Dawn and her dog, Claw, were excited to join the parade.

Dawn dressed Claw in a clown costume with a bright red nose. "You look so funny, Claw!" Dawn laughed. They walked to the starting point of the parade and saw many other pets. There was a cat with a straw hat, a dog with a yellow cape, and even a turtle with a tiny crown.

The parade started, and Dawn and Claw walked proudly. People clapped and cheered as they passed by. Claw saw his friend, Paws, a big fluffy dog wearing a superhero cape. "Wow, Paws, you look great!" Claw barked.

At the end of the parade, there was a big show. Pets did tricks, danced, and showed off their costumes. Claw and Dawn loved watching the performances. The judges gave out awards, and Claw won a prize for the funniest costume!

Dawn and Claw went home with a big smile. "What an awesome Paw Parade!" Dawn said. Claw wagged his tail happily. They couldn't wait for next year's parade.
