

Name _____

Navigating Nonsense: A Columbus Enthusiast's Misadventure

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What inspired Tom to embark on his voyage to recreate Columbus's journey?
 - A. A desire for adventure
 - B. A passion for modern technology
 - C. His fascination with history
 - D. A bet with his friends

2. What traditional navigation tools did Tom bring on his voyage?
 - A. A GPS and a compass
 - B. A sextant, an astrolabe, and a quadrant
 - C. A map and a telescope
 - D. A compass and a radar

3. Why did Tom's friends, Mike and Sarah, join him on the voyage?
 - A. Because they wanted to prove him wrong
 - B. Because they were experts in navigation
 - C. Because they were passionate about cooking
 - D. Because they were intrigued by his plan

4. What challenge did Tom face when using the quadrant?
 - A. He couldn't find the North Star.
 - B. He kept getting seasick.
 - C. He got tangled in the rigging.
 - D. He dropped it overboard.

5. How did Tom and his friends finally find their way back to civilization?
 - A. They followed the North Star.
 - B. They used a compass.
 - C. They asked for directions from passing ships.
 - D. They used a GPS.

