

Name _____

Mighty Mouse

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did Laura Numeroff likely choose a mouse as the main character?
  - a) Mice are known for being quiet and slow.
  - b) Mice are curious and always exploring.
  - c) Mice love to do schoolwork.
  - d) Mice are the most popular pets.

2. How does Mouse's small size affect the story?
  - a) It makes him harder to notice.
  - b) It makes the boy have to carry him everywhere.
  - c) It means he can't do as much as a bigger animal.
  - d) It helps him move quickly and get into things.

3. Why do you think a mouse is funnier than a dog or cat in this story?
  - a) Mice are more common in books.
  - b) A mouse in a school is unexpected and chaotic.
  - c) Dogs and cats are too smart to cause trouble.
  - d) The boy would rather have a mouse than a dog or cat.

4. What is a common trait of mice in children's books?
  - a) They are small but full of energy.
  - b) They always cause problems for humans.
  - c) They are usually the villains of the story.
  - d) They like to sleep a lot.

5. What makes Mouse an exciting character?
  - a) He is always calm and careful.
  - b) He follows all the school rules.
  - c) He has big ideas and lots of energy.
  - d) He gets bored easily and wants to go home.

