

Name _____

Family Lessons

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What did Marmee teach her daughters?
 - a) That wealth was the key to happiness
 - b) That kindness and honesty were important
 - c) That they should always follow the same path
 - d) That success only comes from beauty

2. Why did Meg change her view on wealth?
 - a) She realized that love and family brought true happiness
 - b) She became rich and famous on her own
 - c) She did not want to work hard
 - d) Her parents forced her to marry someone wealthy

3. How did Jo show her love for her family?
 - a) She ignored her sisters to focus on writing
 - b) She cut off her hair to help her mother
 - c) She followed all of society's expectations
 - d) She spent all her time playing music

4. What did Amy learn as she grew older?
 - a) That money was the most important thing in life
 - b) That she should always be the center of attention
 - c) That hard work and passion were more important than just wealth
 - d) That she should stay home like Beth

5. What is the main idea of this passage?
 - a) The March sisters all became rich and famous
 - b) The sisters always made the same decisions
 - c) Marmee and their father wanted their daughters to be exactly alike
 - d) The March family's values helped shape the sisters' choices

