

Name _____

Twisted Logic

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is ironic about the narrator's attempt to prove his sanity?
 - a) He tells a funny joke to show he is normal
 - b) His actions actually prove he is insane
 - c) The police already knew the truth before he confessed
 - d) The old man comes back to life

2. Why does the narrator think he is not mad?
 - a) He carefully planned everything
 - b) The police tell him he is sane
 - c) He never gets scared
 - d) The old man trusts him

3. What does the narrator hear that makes him confess?
 - a) The old man's voice
 - b) The sound of footsteps outside
 - c) The heartbeat growing louder and louder
 - d) The police talking to each other

4. How does the narrator act when the police arrive?
 - a) He hides from them
 - b) He is friendly and confident
 - c) He confesses right away
 - d) He tells them about the old man's eye

5. What is the main irony in the story?
 - a) The police do not actually suspect him
 - b) The narrator is a detective investigating his own crime
 - c) The old man is never actually afraid
 - d) The narrator is trying to prove something that is not true

