The Big Mud Pit

Sam and Ben like to play in the mud. One day, after a big rain, they found a huge mud pit in the yard. "Let's jump in!" said Sam. Ben nodded and they both took a big leap into the mud.

The mud was cool and wet. They made big splashes and had lots of fun. Ben saw a bug on a wet rock. "Look at this bug," he said. Sam came over to see. The bug was small and had red spots.

Sam and Ben made a mud castle. They used sticks and stones to make it look nice. Just then, Sam's dog, Max, ran into the mud pit. Max got all dirty, but he was very happy.

After a while, Mom called them for lunch. Sam and Ben ran to the house, leaving big muddy footprints behind. "What a fun day!" said Sam. Ben agreed and they both smiled.
