

Name _____

Thumbelina's Big Journey

Once upon a time, a tiny girl named Thumbelina lived in a lovely garden. One autumn day, she found a crumb of bread on the ground. Thumbelina decided to follow a bumblebee that was buzzing nearby.

As she walked, she discovered a small tomb hidden under a bush. Curious, she carefully climbed over the roots to take a closer look. Inside the tomb, she saw a beautiful amber necklace that glowed in the dim light. Thumbelina knew she had to bring this amazing find to her friend, who lived in the nearby village. She wrapped the necklace in a soft fabric and set off on her journey. Along the way, she stumbled upon a lamb stuck in a bramble. She helped the lamb, who then followed her happily.

They trekked through a dense forest until they reached a small cabin. Thumbelina knocked on the door, and her friend, Ben, opened it. Ben was amazed by the necklace and thanked Thumbelina for bringing it to him. They decided to keep the necklace as a symbol of their friendship.

The next day, they went to the village square and told everyone about their adventure. The villagers cheered and celebrated Thumbelina's bravery and kindness. From that day on, Thumbelina and Ben were known as the best adventurers in the village.

