

Name _____

The Secret Society of Imaginary Friends

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you had an imaginary friend that came to life to protect you. What kind of imaginary friend would you want, and what special abilities would they have?
2. In your opinion, what was the most exciting adventure that the children and their imaginary friends went on?
3. How did the children and their imaginary friends demonstrate bravery and cleverness in the story?
4. What do you think the jealous children from the neighboring town could have done differently to make friends with the children in the neighborhood?

