

Name _____

Excitement

The announcement of a treasure hunt brought immense excitement to the kids. Each team received a special assignment to find hidden clues.

The management of time was essential to win the game. They felt a great accomplishment after solving each riddle. Their equipment included a map and a compass for navigation.

Every moment of the hunt was filled with enjoyment and wonder. The involvement of parents made the event even more special. Careful movement through the woods was necessary to find the treasure.

The discovery of the treasure chest was the highlight of the day. This memorable event created a strong sense of achievement for everyone.