

Name _____

The Adventure of Plucky the Platypus

Once upon a time, in a lush green forest, there lived a playful platypus named Plucky. Plucky loved exploring the forest, playing with his friends, and having all sorts of splendid adventures.

One pleasant afternoon, Plucky decided to go on a quest to find the most beautiful plum tree in the forest. He packed his small backpack with a slice of plum pie, his favorite plush toy, and a little plastic cup for drinking water.

As Plucky wandered through the forest, he stumbled upon a place where plenty of flowers bloomed. The colors were so bright and pretty that Plucky couldn't help but smile. He plucked a purple flower and placed it in his hat. "This will be a splendid gift for my friend, Polly the Parrot," he thought.

Further along his path, Plucky came across a playful puppy named Piper. Piper loved to plop into puddles and splash around. "Would you like to join me on my quest to find the most beautiful plum tree?" Plucky asked.

Piper wagged his tail and replied, "Plenty of fun awaits us! Let's go!"

The two friends trotted along until they reached a clearing where a splendid plum tree stood tall. Its branches were full of plump, juicy plums. Plucky and Piper climbed the tree and picked as many plums as they could carry. They placed the plums in Plucky's backpack, which was soon full and heavy.

"Let's have a plum pie picnic!" suggested Plucky. They spread out a plaid blanket and placed the plum pie and plums on it. As they enjoyed their pie, they heard a fluttering noise. It was Polly the Parrot, flying down to join them.

"This pie is delicious!" exclaimed Polly. "You two have found the perfect place for a picnic."

Plucky, Piper, and Polly spent the rest of the afternoon playing and laughing under the plum tree. It was a splendid day, full of fun, friendship, and plenty of plums.