

Name _____

Alien Teacher's Adventure on Earth

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Reflect on the transformation of Mr. Zog's understanding of Earth and human culture throughout the school year. How did his experiences and interactions with his students shape his perspective?
2. Discuss the lessons Mr. Zog taught his students about conservation and Earth's natural resources. How might these lessons influence the students' future actions and attitudes toward the environment?
3. Imagine you were one of Mr. Zog's students. What would you have found most fascinating about his stories and experiences from Zorbonia? How might his unique perspective have inspired you?
4. How do you think Mr. Zog's presence and teaching style contributed to making the school year memorable for his students?

