The Amazing Beach Day

One warm day, a boy named Max went to the beach. His sister, a girl named Mia, came with him. They had a big bag with toys.

"Let's play in the sand," said Mia.

Max and Mia made a big sandcastle. They used a red bucket and a blue shovel. The sandcastle had tall towers and a big door.

"Look at our castle," said Max.

Next, they went to the water. The waves were small. Max and Mia splashed and played.

"Watch me swim," said Max.

Mia watched Max swim. She clapped and said, "Good job, Max!"

Then, they saw a big shell on the sand. It was shiny and white. Max picked it up and said, "Look, Mia, a pretty shell!"

Mia smiled and said, "It is so nice!"

They put the shell in their bag. After that, they had a picnic. They ate apples and cookies.

"This is the best day," said Mia.

Max and Mia played until the sun went down. They were happy and tired.

"Let's come back soon," said Max.

"Yes, let's," said Mia.
