

Name _____

The 1919 World Series: Baseball's Biggest Scandal

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was the 1919 World Series known for?
 - a. The amazing plays and victories
 - b. The scandal involving the White Sox
 - c. The record-breaking attendance
 - d. The surprising performance of the Reds

2. Who were the two teams that played in the 1919 World Series?
 - a. Chicago Cubs and New York Yankees
 - b. Chicago White Sox and Cincinnati Reds
 - c. Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Cardinals
 - d. Detroit Tigers and Pittsburgh Pirates

3. Why did the White Sox players lose on purpose in the 1919 World Series?
 - a. They wanted to entertain the fans.
 - b. They were not skilled enough to win.
 - c. They conspired with gamblers for money.
 - d. They had a bet with the Reds.

4. What was the nickname of one of the famous White Sox players involved in the scandal?
 - a. "Ruthless" Ruth
 - b. "Shoeless" Joe Jackson
 - c. "Babe" Ruth
 - d. "Sultan of Swat" Sam

5. What measures did baseball take to prevent future scandals like the 1919 World Series?
 - a. Established the Commissioner of Baseball
 - b. Increased player salaries
 - c. Allowed gambling in baseball
 - d. Encouraged players to throw games

