

Name _____

Talking Animals

Imagine you could talk to animals for a day. Write about the amazing conversations you have and the secrets they share with you.

A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a thick blue border, intended for the student to write their response to the writing prompt.