Poems, Plays, and Prose

TRUE OR FALSE

1. Plays are meant to be performed for an audience. _____

2. Poems are intended only to be read. _____

3. Prose tends to deliver its message in a straightforward way. _____

4. Only poems use figurative language. _____

5. Only poetry has rhythm, _____

6. Rhythm is central to poetry. _____

7. Dialogue is central to prose. _____

8. Prose can be fiction or nonfiction. _____

9. Plays are almost always fiction. _____

10. Poems, plays, and prose can all have theme. _____

11. Poems never tell a story. _____

© ReadingDuck.com