

Name _____ Verbals

Infinitives

An infinitive is the word "to" plus the stem form of a verb. Examples: to eat, to dance, to wear, to work, to remember, etc. As a noun, an infinitive can be a subject, subject complement, or direct object in a sentence.

DIRECTIONS: Write a sentence that uses each infinitive as indicated.

1. to work as a subject
2. to pass as a direct object
3. to play as a subject complement
4. to rest as a direct object
5. to adore as a subject
6. to forgive as a subject complement
7. to grow as a direct object