

Problem and Solution

DIRECTIONS: Find the problem in each short story. How would you solve this problem? Write the problem and the solution in the boxes.

1. Anna heard hear dog barking in the back yard. She went out to see why. Her dog jumping around a small box turtle who had pulled himself inside of his shell. The dog was very excited, and the turtle was very scared.

Problem:
Solution:

2. Hank woke up hungry on a Saturday morning. He went into the kitchen and poured himself a bowl of cereal. He got the milk from the refrigerator and poured it over the cereal, but the milk was lumpy – it had gone sour. There was no more milk in the fridge.

Problem:
Solution:

