

Name _____ Monologue

Monologue

TRUE OR FALSE

1. A monologue is speech made by one character to other characters in a literary or dramatic work. _____
2. The word monologue comes from Latin words meanings “alone” and “to speak.” _____
3. One function of monologue is to reveal a character’s internal thoughts to the reader or the audience. _____
4. A monologue can be used to share a character’s motivations with the readers or audience. _____
5. Monologue and soliloquy are synonyms. _____
6. In a dramatic work, a monologue is when a character talks to others and a soliloquy is when a character talks to themselves. _____
7. A monologue can be used to reveal a character’s voice to the readers or audience. _____
8. A monologue is a way to share a prophecy or prediction with the readers or audience. _____