

Name _____

Full of Nuts

Sammy the squirrel loved to collect nuts. One day, while searching for acorns, he spotted a giant blue nut glowing in the grass. "What is this?" Sammy wondered. He tried to lift it, but it was too heavy!

Just then, his friend Ruby the rabbit hopped by. "Let's roll it to your tree!" Ruby said. Together, they rolled the nut, but as it moved, it started to shake. Suddenly, it popped open, and out came a swarm of tiny fireflies. "Wow!" Sammy gasped. The fireflies danced around, lighting up the forest. "The best treasure ever!" Ruby laughed.
