

Name _____

The Price of Power

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was Julius Caesar named that made the senators worried?
  - a) Dictator for Life
  - b) King of Rome
  - c) Leader of the Army
  - d) Emperor of the World

2. Why did the senators want to stop Caesar?
  - a) They were jealous of his power.
  - b) They thought he was too weak to rule.
  - c) They wanted to take over Rome themselves.
  - d) They thought he would become too powerful and turn into a king.

3. What did Brutus struggle with before deciding to betray Caesar?
  - a) Whether he wanted to be king instead of Caesar.
  - b) Whether his love for Rome was greater than his friendship with Caesar.
  - c) Whether he had enough support from the people.
  - d) Whether he should leave Rome.

4. What happened after Caesar was killed?
  - a) Rome became peaceful and strong.
  - b) Mark Antony became king.
  - c) The people became angry, and war broke out.
  - d) The senators took over and ruled happily.

5. What lesson does Shakespeare's play teach about power?
  - a) Power always leads to happiness.
  - b) A leader must always trust their friends.
  - c) Too much power can lead to corruption and problems.
  - d) Only strong people can rule a country.

