

Name _____

Different Paths

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What did Meg value the most in life?
 - a) Becoming famous
 - b) Having a loving family
 - c) Traveling the world
 - d) Writing books

2. Why did Jo struggle with society's expectations for women?
 - a) She didn't want to get married and wanted to be a writer.
 - b) She loved playing music more than reading.
 - c) She wanted to be a great artist like Amy.
 - d) She didn't like spending time with her sisters.

3. How was Beth different from the other sisters?
 - a) She was the most talkative and outgoing.
 - b) She wanted to become a writer like Jo.
 - c) She valued kindness and simple joys over fame.
 - d) She cared about fashion and popularity.

4. What lesson did Amy learn as she grew older?
 - a) Being rich was the most important thing in life.
 - b) She should always follow her sisters' choices.
 - c) Traveling was not as exciting as she thought.
 - d) Hard work and passion are what truly lead to success.

5. What do the March sisters' differences show about being a woman in the 19th century?
 - a) All women had to follow the same path.
 - b) There were different ways for women to live and find happiness.
 - c) Women could not be successful.
 - d) Only wealthy women had choices.

