

ANSWERS

The bald eagle is a large bird found near bodies of water, Eagles eat fish. They also hunt and eat small mammals like rabbits and raccoons. They can grow up to three feet long with a wing span up to eight feet long. The bald eagle is at the top of its food chain, as it has no natural predators. Bald eagles live in North America, Canada, and Northern Mexico.