

ANSWERS

1. Tom's team has won every home game and lost every away game. Tom tells his teammates that their home field is lucky for them and they are losing their away games because the away fields bring them no luck.
2. The local animal shelter has dozens of cats available for adoption but only a few dogs. Anna says that there are more cats than dogs at the animal shelter because so many people want dogs than cats, less cats get adopted.