

ANSWERS

1. Dr. Frankenstein is the hubristic character.
2. Dr. Frankenstein believes he can create a living being from dead flesh.
3. In his story, the warning is not given to Dr. Frankenstein, but BY Dr. Frankenstein to Walton as he tells Walton his story. Walton's desires to do something great parallel Frankenstein's.
4. Frankenstein creates the monster.
5. Everyone Victor Frankenstein cared about, including himself, met a tragic end.
6. The message is the science and technology can go too far.