

ANSWERS

1. A parody is a satirical or ironic imitation of another work, an artist, or a genre that uses deliberate exaggeration for comic effect.
2. A parody is generally negative in that it ridicules the perceived weaknesses of a work or the overused conventions of a genre.
3. it makes satire sharper and more effective; it appeals to a reader's sense of humor, calling their attention to the lighter side of things that are normally taken seriously.
4. will vary