

Name _____

Easter on Mars: A Red Planet Celebration

Short Answer Key

1. The Mars Egg containers were filled with Martian-themed toys, snacks, and small gadgets crafted by the colonists.
2. The children dressed in their Mars suits for the adventure.
3. The star-gazing session allowed the colonists to marvel at the Martian sky and the distant view of Earth, creating a sense of connection to their home planet.
4. The Martian Egg Hunt was considered fun because it was a game, but it was also educational because it helped the colonists practice their survival skills on Mars.
5. The Martian chocolate cake was special because it had a unique taste that was out of this world, and it was a part of the Easter feast on Mars.

